

Foxfire Golf Club Junior Golf Program

What's Next.....

The Foxfire Golf Club Junior Golf Program is a great way to teach young players how to play the game of golf. The different levels of the program allow golfers of all ages to improve their skills. The question is.....after the program is over - What's Next?

What's Next is the two day comprehensive skills development camp. This two day camp will touch on both full swing and short game techniques that will allow players to develop their skills in order to become better players.

Areas of Focus of the What's Next Camp Include:

- Making more Short Putts
- Judging Distance and Speed on Longer Putts
- Improving Contact with Pitches and Chips
- Better Distance Control on Chips and Pitches
- Special "Course Like" Situations
- Improved Driver Accuracy and Distance
- More Solid and Accurate Iron Shots
- Contests, Games and Drills for fun and Improvement of Technique
- Effective Practice Habits

The What's Next camp will be held July 29th and 30th from 6:00 - 8:00 pm each day. This camp is exclusively for 2019 Foxfire Junior Golf Program Players ONLY! The cost for the camp is $50.00 per player and is limited to the first 24 paid campers. This allows us to have a 8:1 Player to Instructor ratio. Allowing players to receive clear instruction with plenty of one on one attention. To register for the What's Next camp send an email to: bbarnett@pga.com with your players: Name, Age, and a parent Cell Phone Number. If you have questions please contact Brian Barnett - 614-588-2656
